

Dear Friends:

This year, the Beaches Area Historical Society will host its 38th gala Beach Legends. The fun, which includes a cocktail hour, silent and live auctions, and a sit-down dinner, begins at 6:30 p.m. Friday, September 21 at TPC Sawgrass Clubhouse. Proceeds will go toward educational programs and operational needs of the Beaches Museum & History Park. Your auction donation is needed to make the 2018 Legends fundraiser a success.

Recognizing that tomorrow's history is being made today, the highlight of the evening will be an awards presentation honoring well-known, contemporary individuals who have made and are making significant contributions to the on-going history of Mayport, Atlantic Beach, Neptune Beach, Jacksonville Beach, Ponte Vedra Beach and Palm Valley.

The 2018 Legend Honorees are:

HON. ELAINE BROWN AND HON. RICHARD BROWN

Elaine and Dick Brown are well known in our community as long-term Neptune Beach residents, local business leaders and dynamic volunteers. As individuals and as a couple, they share a one-of-a-kind history of community leadership. In addition to numerous nonprofit and civic organizations, both have served multiple terms on Jacksonville's City Council. Elaine and Dick have also both been members of Neptune Beach City Commission, and each has been elected Mayor of Neptune Beach.

SAM VEAL

Sam Veal was born and raised in our beach community and as an adult, his work has brought a wealth of cultural richness to our lives. Sam searches out and nurtures local musical talent -- booking new artists, old favorites and nationally known stars for local venues. He founded the annual Sea Walk Music Fest, the Salt Life Music Fest, the Great Atlantic Music Fest and he's put Jacksonville Beach on the musical map with Springing the Blues.

JAMES ROOSEVELT STOCKTON, JR.

Jimmy Stockton traces his family's Jacksonville roots to the 1860's. Stockton leadership in banking, publishing and the development of Ponte Vedra Beach and the historic Inn & Club is legend. Jimmy has enjoyed a successful 50 year career in real estate, but he sees the world as much more than a land development opportunity. As a modern day adventurer, he has enjoyed a life of African safaris, hiking, horseback riding, sailing, hunting, fishing, camping and exploring the world with family and friends.

This year is even more special as we celebrate the 40th year of the Beaches Area Historical Society! Since the first meeting on February 22, 1978, we have worked to ensure "a future for our past" thanks to the support of individuals, organizations and people like you!

Please return the enclosed auction donation form as soon as possible. Visit www.beachmuseum.org to learn more about the work the Beaches Museum & History Park does to preserve our coastal heritage. Our success depends on the help and support of all sponsors and donors. Your generosity will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,
